St. James's, March 19. His Grace the Duke of Ormond, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxford, attended by the Vice-Chancellor, and ſeveral of the Heads of the Colleges the Doctors and Maſters of the ſaid Univerſity, preſented to Her Majeſty the Addreſs which follows.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Doctors, Proctors, and Maſters, of the Univerſity of Oxford, do, upon this Solemn Occaſion, crave Leave to preſent this Unanimous Teſtimony of our Sorrow for the Death of our late Sovereign Lord, King William, and at the ſame time do with all Humility adore and magnifie the Providence of Almighty God, by whom Kings and Queens Reign, who out of his unſpeakable Mercy, and ſingular Care of this Church and State, hath preſerv'd your Sacred Majeſty through many Difficulties, for the happy Government and Defence of theſe Kingdoms.

And as we can never depart from the Principles of our Inſtitution in this Place, and the Religion eſtabliſhed in the Church of England, which bind us to bear all Faith and true Allegiance to our Sovereign; ſo we cannot but with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude acknowledge this farther Obligation, which Your Majeſty hath laid on all your Subjects by your Royal Declaration, to maintain the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and the Government of the Church and State as by Law eſtabliſhed.

Wherefore we preſume to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we ſhall conſtantly by God's Aſſiſtance, with our utmoſt Zeal and Fidelity, improve all thoſe Advantages wherewith we are intruſted in this ancient Nurſery of Learning, to promote the Happineſs and Security of Your Majeſty's Reign over us: And we do think our ſelves more particularly oblig'd to do ſo, upon the account of thoſe many Rights, Privileges, and Immunities, which Your Majeſty's Royal Anceſtors, Kings and Queens of theſe Kingdoms, have graciouſly beſtowed upon this Place, for the encouragement of Religion, Learning, and good Diſcipline. And we do with all humble Confidence aſſure our Selves of the Continuance and free Enjoyment of the ſame from Your Majeſty's Royal Favour and Protection.

May God Almighty, that hath ſettled you in Peace on the Throne of your Anceſtors, protect your Perſon in the full and ſecure Poſſeſſion of it, and grant you a long and glorious Reign over us.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was moſt graciouſly pleaſed to anſwer,

I Thank you very kindly for your good Addreſs; And ſhall always take care of the Church of England, and in particular of your Univerſity.

The following Addreſs from the City of Oxford was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Rowney and Francis Norreys Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty, of Your ancient and ever-loyal City of Oxford, do humbly beg Leave to Condole with Your Majeſty the Death of His late Majeſty King William the Third, the Defender of our Religion, the Aſſerter of our Liberties, and the Reſtorer of our Laws: And alſo with Hearts full of Joy Congratulate Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, of which Your Sacred Majeſty, as well by a Lineal Deſcent as by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament for ſettling the Succeſſion thereof, is the undoubted rightful and lawful Queen.

Your Majeſty's Declaration to Your Council, and Your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne to Both Houſes, are convincing Proofs, That the Good of all Your Subjects is Your Majeſty's only Aim and Deſire.

We are entirely ſatisfied, That under Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, (which GOD long continue) our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, will be inviolably preſerved: Your known Zeal for the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed, will propagate the one, and Your Heart, which is entirely Engliſh, defend the other.

We therefore crave Leave to give Your Majeſty our ſincere Aſſurances of our Fidelity to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which we will effectually ſupport, maintain, and defend, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Your Majeſty's Enemies both at home and abroad.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto ſet our Common Seal the 16th Day of March, in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, Annoq; Domini 1701.

May Providence preſerve your Life to accompliſh thoſe Glorious Undertakings; after which may we be farther bleſs'd with your long and peaceable Reign over us. Dated under our Hands this 17th day of March, in the Firſt year of Your Majeſty's Reign over England, &c.

WE do with all Grief imaginable Condole the Loſs of His late Majeſty, King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, the Reſtorer of our Liberties, and (under God) the Protector of the Proteſtant Religion.

Under the Senſe of which nothing could have ſupported us, but that Divine Providence has filled the Throne with ſo Excellent a Succeſſor, from whom we may juſtly expect all that the utmoſt of our Wiſhes can deſire, both as to our Religion, Liberties, and Property, for the Preſervation whereof your Sacred Majeſty has given undeniable Proofs, That they are of all Things the moſt valuable to you.

And we do humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we ſhall in all things, to the utmoſt of our Capacities in our ſeveral Stations, behave our ſelves with that Fidelity and Loyalty towards Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, as becomes the moſt dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Princeſſes: And we moſt heartily wiſh and pray for Your Majeſty's long and happy Reign over us.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace, at the Aſſizes holden at Aylesbury, for the County of Bucks, the 9th day of March, 1701.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being deeply and truly ſenſible of the great Loſs theſe Kingdoms have ſuſtained by the Death of our late moſt Glorious Sovereign Lord, King William the Third, of bleſſed Memory, crave Leave to Condole with Your Majeſty, and expreſs our Sorrow upon this Occaſion.

But the Aſſurance we have of Your Majeſty's many eminent Virtues and Zeal manifeſted through the whole courſe of Your Majeſty's Life, and Your Majeſty's late Gracious Declaration to maintain our Religion and Liberties as by Law eſtabliſhed, doth refreſh and comfort our drooping Spirits, and fill our Hearts with Joy.

And whereas the Acceſſion to the Throne is Your Majeſty's undoubted Right, we moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That, to the utmoſt of our Power, we will ſupport and defend Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government againſt all your Enemies both at home and abroad.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, tho' deeply Afflicted with the Loſs of our late Sovereign William the Third, of Glorious Memory; yet humbly crave Leave to caſt our ſelves at your Sacred Feet, and to expreſs our infinite Satisfaction and Joy at Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors. We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, how joyfully Your Majeſty's Affection declared [illegible] Council, to the Church of England *as by Law eſtabliſhed, was receiv[illegible] by us all. Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOur Majeſty's lawful and rightful Acceſſion to the Throne of Your Anceſtors, is that alone, which is able to ſupport our drooping Spirits under our inexpreſſible Sorrow for the loſs of our late great Defender, King William the Third, of bleſſed Memory, whoſe Death gave Life to the Hopes of the Enemies of England, and added to the Fears of all true Engliſh Men; but ſince Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration in Council, and Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, all thoſe Hopes and Fears may juſtly be extinguiſhed, and all Your loyal Subjects reſt fully ſatisfied, Your Royal Heart being entirely bent to promote the true Intereſt of England, to Adviſe and Concur with Your great Council to ſecure to us and to our Poſterities the full Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, to maintain the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and the Government in Church and State as by Law eſtabliſhed, and effectually to join with our Allies to oppoſe the exorbitant Power of France. We have no more to wiſh, but that our Glorious Queen and her Poſterity may for ever Reign over us, a thankful and obedient People; and do moſt humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will, in our ſeveral Stations, ſtand by and aſſiſt Your Majeſty againſt all Your Enemies whatſoever, with the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Eſtates, for the Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, under which we do aſſuredly truſt to ſee a more glorious Flouriſh of the true Engliſh Conſtitution, than ever it enjoyed under the benign Influences of its juſtly renowned Virgin Queen.

But herein we are moſt ſenſibly and effectually relieved by Your Majeſty's moſt happy and peaceable Succeſſion to theſe Crowns, whoſe Rightful and Undoubted Title we acknowledge with the greateſt Sincerity, and whoſe conſtant Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion is ſo juſtly Renown'd: For all which, with unfeigned Joy, we Bleſs and Adore the Divine Goodneſs.

We farther beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our moſt dutiful Affection, and inviolable Fidelity, to Your Royal Perſon and Government; not doubting of our Share in the many Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's wiſe and happy Reign, which we heartily pray may be long over us.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign.

AS nothing can repair the unſpeakable Loſs we have ſuſtained in the Perſon of our late moſt renowned Monarch and Deliverer, William the Third, but the moſt happy and peaceable Acceſſion of Your Majeſty to the Throne of your Anceſtors; We haſten to approach Your Majeſty with the moſt ſincere and real Profeſſion of our Loyalty, as becomes your moſt dutiful Subjects, fully ſenſible of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's Royal Protection, and moſt auſpicious Reign.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

OUR Duty to Your Majeſty, with the Gratitude and Veneration we owe to the Glorious Memory of our late Gracious Sovereign, King William the Third, obliges us to embrace this firſt Opportunity of Teſtifying our deep and afflicting Senſe of the unſpeakable Loſs of ſo great a Prince, which nothing could more effectually ſuſtain us under, than (through the ſignal Bleſſing of God) Your Majeſty's moſt happy and peaceable Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

And now we are met together with the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction to Proclaim Your Majeſty our moſt rightful and lawful Sovereign Lady and Queen over theſe your Dominions of England, &c. we moſt heartily Congratulate Your Majeſty upon this Occaſion, and with all Sincerity aſſure Your Majeſty of our moſt unfeigned Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Government, which to the utmoſt of our Power we will endeavour to maintain and defend againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all Oppoſers whatſoever both at home and abroad.

And that God Almighty would Bleſs Your Majeſty with long Life, Crown all your great Undertakings with glorious Succeſſes, and enable you to accompliſh the Noble Reſolutions you have taken, and was graciouſly pleaſed to declare at your Firſt Sitting in Council, for the Good of Europe in general, and of theſe Your Majeſty's Dominions in particular, are, and ever ſhall be, the hearty Prayers of your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to Condole with Your Majeſty the ſurpriſing great and inexpreſſible Loſs, in the Death of William the Third, our late King and Deliverer, of happy and glorious Memory.

We do heartily and unfeignedly Congratulate Your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne: Your Perſonal exemplary Piety in the whole Series of Your Life, and Your known Zeal for the Religion, Rights, and Eſtabliſhments of Your Country, experienced in times of Tryal amongſt us, give us a rational and well-grounded Proſpect of future Happineſs; and the Aſſurances You have been pleaſed to add in Your Gracious Declaration to Your Council, (for which we beg Leave to return our moſt humble and hearty Thanks) doth fully raiſe our Hopes, and doth moderate our Grief.

We do moſt heartily Congratulate the Unanimity that hath appeared in Your Parliament upon this Occaſion, and the Wiſe and Juſt Reſolution of Your Majeſty, and Them, for the Support of Your Majeſty's Allies, and the Reduction of the exorbitant Power of France; we beg Leave humbly to aſſure Your Majeſty of our hearty Affections and Concurrence therein, and that we will be ready upon all Occaſions, to the utmoſt of our Power, to aſſiſt and defend Your Majeſty againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all Your Enemies whatſoever, and will moſt readily and chearfully Contribute all we are able for the promoting Your Majeſty's great Intentions for the Maintenance of the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, the Government in Church and State as by Law eſtabliſhed, and the Support and Defence of the Common Cauſe, and Liberty of Europe.

THo' our Affliction for the Loſs of our late King William, of Glorious Memory, be as great as is poſſible for loyal Subjects to conceive, who have for many years ſeen the Honour and Intereſt of theſe Nations, and the ſtruggling Liberties of Europe, ſuſtained by his invincible Courage and Conduct.

Yet our Hearts are revived, when we ſee our Affairs re-eſtabliſhed at home by your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne.

We therefore preſume with all humility to Congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Government; and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, That as it affords us unſpeakable Joy, ſo we ſhall never be wanting to continue the Bleſſing to our ſelves, by our ſincere and hearty Prayers to God for your Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign, and by contributing to the Support and Eaſe of it, in the utmoſt Demonſtrations of our Duty and Affection.

WE humbly beg Leave to Condole with your moſt Sacred Majeſty the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King William, a Loſs that could not have been made up to theſe Nations, but by Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, which we moſt heartily Congratulate; and at the ſame time ſincerely aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will, to the utmoſt of our Powers, defend Your Majeſty's moſt undoubted Right againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Your Majeſty's Enemies both at home and abroad, entirely depending on the Gracious Aſſurances given by Your Majeſty to your Privy Council, That you will maintain the Government in Church and State as by Law eſtabliſhed.

WE Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, do in moſt humble manner take this firſt opportunity to Congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown, which only could Retrieve our great Loſs by the Death of our late moſt glorious Sovereign; And we do with all dutiful Submiſſion beg your Majeſty's Acceptance of our ſincere and hearty Proteſtation of an unalterable Loyalty and Obedience to your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, heartily beſeeching Almighty God to grant to your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign over us.

TO permit your dutiful Subjects to Condole with Your Majeſty the unſpeakable Loſs theſe Nations have ſuſtained by the Death of ſo great a King, who was indeed an Aſſertor and Patron of Engliſh Liberty, and the real Defender of our Faith.

But ſince it pleaſed the Divine Providence to lighten that Burden, which otherwiſe would have been inſupportable, by placing the Crown on your Majeſty's Head, and putting it into your Heart to carry on that Work he ſo gloriouſly begun, and to confirm thoſe Alliances he entred into for reducing the exorbitant Power of France, thereby to compleat the Preſervation of our Religion, and the Laws and Liberties of your Country; we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That as we with one Heart and Voice chearfully have acknowledged your Right, and proclaimed your Title, ſo we will to the utmoſt of our Power for ever defend and ſupport the ſame againſt all Pretenders whatſoever, and aſſiſt and ſtand by Your Majeſty in the Maintenance of your Government both in Church and State, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, as they are now by Law eſtabliſhed.

But Windſor, moſt gracious Sovereign, Windſor is more eſpecially obliged to retain a grateful Remembrance of your former Favours. She had been a Province deſolate and forſaken, if your Princely Bounty and Compaſſion had not ſaid unto her, Live: Wherefore now let her proud and ſtately Towers lift up their Heads yet higher, and let her Inhabitants ſing aloud for Joy; for her Royal Highneſs is cloathed with Majeſty, and our Royal Benefactreſs is become our Queen.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants, in and near the Borough of Southwark.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do with Your Majeſty Condole the Death of the late King Your glorious Predeceſſor, who hath reſcued and preſerved our Religion and Liberties from Popery and Arbitrary Power, and hath endeavoured to tranſmit to Poſterity the Bleſſings of His own Reign, by continuing the Succeſſion to Your Crowns in the Proteſtant Line, by forming Alliances ſufficient, with the Bleſſing of God, to break the laſt and greateſt Efforts of France for obtaining Univerſal Monarchy and deſtroying the Proteſtant Religion; and by endeavouring, as his laſt Legacy, to bequeath an Union betwixt the Kingdoms of England and Scotland for the everlaſting Peace and Proſperity of the People.

We heartily Congratulate Your Majeſty's happy and peaceable Acceſſion to Your Kingdoms, as the only Recompence for ſo great a Loſs; Your Majeſty's known Zeal for the Religion, Liberties, Peace and Proſperity of Your People, gives us all poſſible Aſſurance, That the Glorious Attempts of Your Predeceſſor ſhall be preſerv'd to be finiſhed in Your Reign, and that the Honour of the Engliſh Nation will be carried farther than it hath ever yet attained.

And we believe it to be our Duty, to acknowledge Your Majeſty's undoubted Right to Your Kingdoms, and to contribute our utmoſt Endeavours with our Hearts and our Purſes, to ſupport and defend the ſame againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, the French King, and all Oppoſers whatſoever.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen and Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Sandwich.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AS we could not but be filled with Grief and Surpriſe at the News of the ſudden Death of our late Gracious King William, of Glorious Memory, ſo our Grief was much leſſened, when we conſidered your Sacred Majeſty's undoubted Right to theſe Kingdoms, your happy Education among us, and your more happy Temper; from all which we promiſe our ſelves a certain Felicity under your Auſpicious Government: It was alſo a conſiderable Addition to our Pleaſure, when we ſaw Your Majeſty's Gracious Declaration at your firſt Sitting in the Council.

Give us Leave therefore, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to return you our moſt humble Thanks for thoſe Aſſurances you have given us of Happineſs under your Government, and to aſſure Your Majeſty of the heartieſt Fidelity and Allegiance on our part, of our firmeſt Reſolutions to ſtand by and ſupport Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and your juſt Title to theſe Crowns, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all Oppoſers whatſoever, and to maintain the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line.

And we put up our humble Petitions to Almighty God, That he would not only grant your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign over us, but bleſs you with ſuch Councils and Subjects, as may promote your Majeſty's great Deſigns of making your Self a Glorious Princeſs, this a Flouriſhing Kingdom, and us a Happy People.

In witneſs whereof, we have hereunto cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation to be affixed this 17th day of March, 1701.

The two following Addreſſes were preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Thornhill Eſq; Chief Steward of the Court of Record of the Tower, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lucas, Chief Governor of the ſame.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Chief Governor, Chief Steward of the Court of Record, Juſtices of the Peace, Jury of the Royal Leet, and chief Inhabitants of Your Royal Tower of London, and the Liberties and Precincts thereof, at a Petty Seſſions there held.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THO' we cannot forbear to ſhew our Lamentation under the Afflicting Providence of Almighty God, in calling to himſelf our late Sovereign Lord King William, (the Deliverer of theſe Kingdoms from Popery and Slavery) of which Loſs your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to declare your Royal Senſe and Sorrow; yet when we find and enjoy the ſingular Bleſſing of your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown, and the immenſe and true Joy of us, and all other your Subjects, for the ſame, We ſhould account our ſelves the worſt of Men, not to offer up our Praiſes to God for ſo great a Mercy, which we not only do, but heartily implore his Divine Protection and Aſſiſtance to your Majeſty in your Government, eſpecially at this difficult and troubleſome time, and to bleſs and proſper your Glorious Reſolutions in pulling down the Tyranny and Power of the French King, and to grant you a long and proſperous Reign over theſe Kingdoms, ſo juſtly deſcended and come to your Majeſty, whoſe Royal Perſon, and undoubted Right and Title, we will (moſt freely) with our Lives and Eſtates defend, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all others whatſoever.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

From the Imperial Head Quarters at Luzzara, March 5. N. S. The 27th paſt we received an Account, That the German Forces poſted on the Po, had ſeized 2 large Boats laden with Ammunition, which the French were ſending to Cremona. The 28th we had an Account from Genoua, that about 10000 French Foot from Thoulon were landed on that Coaſt, and marched to join the French Army. The Firſt Inſtant we had advice, That the French deſigned a Flying Camp between Cremona and Aquanegra; That they had begun to build ſome Forts on both ſides the Adda; That the Duke of Vendoſme was come from Milan to Cremona, with a Guard of 2000 Horſe and 500 Foot, and will ſhortly go to Lodi. The 2d we received an Account, That the Enemy's Succours of Horſe were advanced to Torrona, that they talked of forming another Camp between Cremona and Picighitone, and that they were going to make a Bridge over the Po, near Piacenza d'Arena. The 3d divers Spaniſh Deſerters came over to us. The 4th Prince Thomas of Vaudemont ſent advice, That he had ordered a Body of 500 Horſe to march to Stradella. We continue to ſend out Parties who make Excurſions very far into the Cremoneze.

Venice, March 10. Several Regiments of Horſe are lately arrived here from Dalmatia, which are ſent to Verona, Breſcia and the other Towns belonging to this State. Signior Delfino is appointed to go in the quality of Ambaſſador to the Court of Vienna. Letters from the French Army ſay, they have received a Reinforcement from France, and are at present about [illegible] strong. The German Forces continue in the same Posts, and expect in short time to be reinforced by a Body of about 15000 Horse and Foot, which are actually marching for that purpose from Germany.

Warsaw, March 14. The Sieur Sack, who was formerly Envoy from the King of Poland to the Court of Sweden, went from hence last week to the Swedish Camp in Lithuania, to endeavour a Negociation for accommodating matters between the 2 Crowns, and the Ambassadors of the Republick will begin their Journey to morrow. The Great Treasurer of Lithuania, Prince Sapieha, having received Advice, That the Sieur Oginsky had got together a Body of Muscovite Forces, and had made an Excursion into that Dutchy, and plundered and destroyed a Town called Buckhon, and divers Villages belonging to the House of Sapieha, he is thereupon gone from hence to Lithuania to endeavour to get some Forces together to oppose Oginsky's Party. There is a Report, That the Cassacks have taken up Arms against the Muscovites, which if it be true, will oblige them to withdraw their Forces from the Frontiers of Livonia.

Vienna, March 15. The King of the Romans Equipage for his going into the Field is preparing with all diligence, The several States of the Hereditary Countries design to make him each a present upon this occasion, 'tis thought that of the States of Bohemia will amount to 100000 Florins. The Preparations for the Campaign on the Rhine are carrying on with all possible Expedition, and the Imperial Forces continue to march that way. Orders will shortly be given for sending farther Reinforcements to Italy, and 'tis said, That in 2 Months time the Imperial Army there will be above 50000 Men.

Hamburgh, March 24. The Dukes of Wolfembuttel, having notwithstanding the Remonstrances made to them by the Emperor's Order entred into a close Alliance with France, and with the Money they received from thence augmented their Troops to such a number, as that the neighbouring States were thereby greatly endangered; It was resolved to make use of Force to oblige them to quit the French Interests; and so the Forces of Hanover and Cell drew together and entred the 19th Instant, in the night, into the Dutchy of Wolfembuttel, where they have possessed themselves of several Places, and have seized several Troops lately raised by the Duke of Wolfembuttel, who lay dispersed in the Country, which in all appearance will bring this Matter speedily to a Determination, and oblige those Princes to embrace the Interests of the Empire. 'Tis said, some of the King of Prussia's Forces are in motion likewise, to join those of Hanover and Cell if there be occasion. They write from Courland, that the King of Sweden was still at Kowno, expecting the Ambassadors from the Republick of Poland. Letters from Warsaw say, the Nobility continue to remove from thence with their best Effects; and that a particular Diet of the Palatinate of Warsaw had met, who resolved to desire the King of Poland not to call any Foreign Troops to his Assistance, but to depend upon his own Subjects of Poland. It was reported there, that the Cossacks were entred into an Alliance with the Tartars against the Czar, and had made an Inroad into Muscovy and destroyed a great many Villages. The last Letters from Lithuania say, the King of Sweden is still at Cawen, where he designs to receive the Ambassadors from the Republick of Poland, and that there appears a good disposition to enter upon a Treaty of Peace between the two Crowns.

Hanover, March 24. The Forces of Hanover and Cell continue to keep the Avenues of Brunswick and Wolfembuttel shut up, till the Dukes of Wolfembuttel have declared themselves, in relation to the quitting their Engagements with France, which if they do not in few days, the Emperor's Mandates against them will be put in execution.

Hague, March 21. N. S. After a great Affliction for the Death of His late Majesty of Great Britain, the Vigour and Zeal for carrying on the Common Cause seem to be redoubled in this Country, to which the Resolutions taken by the Queen of England and the Parliament have greatly contributed. On the 25th Instant, the States of Holland and West-frizeland went in a Body to the Assembly of the States General, and represented to them, That they had, with the deepest Sorrow, received the unhappy News of His late Majesty's Death, and having reflected on the great Loss which thereby has happened to this State, in being deprived of that Support and that Band, by which the Union of these Provinces were linked and held fast together, and of their chief Head, as well by Sea as Land, who had so often defended them against their Enemies, and by whose wise and prudent Conduct so many Princes and Potentates had entered into Alliances with this State; and were knit together as in one Body against the common Enemy; They thought, That in this dangerous Conjuncture, nothing could be more effectual for their Security, than that all the Members of this State should stand by one another with a perfect Unity, Love, and mutual Confidence; That Vigorous Resolutions be taken for the Defence of their Country, and the Preservation of their Religion, and that they adhere firmly to their Alliances, and pursue steadily the Measures already enter'd into, and which shall be thought farther expedient for the Good of the Common Cause: All which the States of Holland declared themselves ready to perform, on their part, with the utmost Vigour and Heartiness; as also to raise the necessary Supplies, and even greater than are already given, and rather to sacrifice their Blood and Treasure, and all they possess, than to see their State, their Liberty, and Religion destroyed: All this was highly approved by the States General, who returned their Thanks to the States of Holland, for this resolute and laudable Declaration of their Intentions in this great Conjuncture, and assured them of their hearty Concurrence therein, for the Safety and Welfare of the State, and for vigorously carrying on the Common Cause; and they ordered Letters to be writ to the other Provinces, to invite them to give the like Assurances, and to make the like Declaration as has already been done by the Province of Utricht; And the City of Amsterdam being desirous to distinguish themselves by a particular Zeal on this occasion, have signified to the States General, That they will not only readily give their Consent to such Resolutions as shall be thought necessary to be taken at this time, but will likewise advance Money to those Provinces, which cannot so readily furnish their Quota's of the Supplies that shall be granted. These Resolutions of the States have been notified to all the Foreign Ministers residing here, and the Ministers of this State abroad, have Orders to Notifie the same in the Courts where they reside. Count Nassaw-Saarbruck, who commanded in the Camp near Nimeguen, is advanced to Wesel, and this being the last day given to the Spaniards, for paying the Money due from them to the States General, (which there is no appearance of their doing) 'tis expected we shall shortly hear of Action, and it is publick discoursed, That the Allies will begin with the Siege of Keyserswaert.

His Excellency the Earl of Marlborough arrived here this evening from England, and had a Conferrence with the Pensionary, and on Thursday next is to have a Publick Audience of the States General. The King of Prussia's Envoy has presented a Memorial to the States General, demanding the Estate which the late Majesty of Great Britain possessed in these Provinces, as being fallen to his Master by Right of Succession. Three Deputies of the States are sent to the Frontiers to inspect the Forces.

Hague, March 31. N. S. His Excellency the Earl of Marlborough had this day Audience of the States General, being conducted to it with great Solemnity, and a more numerous Train of Coaches than ordinary, in which he gave the States all Assurances of Her Majesty's steadfast Resolution to live with them in the strictest Friendship and Correspondence, and to adhere unalterably to the Alliances that have been concluded by His late Majesty, of Glorious Memory, with the States and other Potentates, and to pursue all the Measures already taken, or which shall further be thought necessary to be agreed on, for the Interests of both Nations, and for preserving the Liberties of Europe, and reducing the Exorbitant Power of France; To which Monsieur Dyckvelt, President of the Assembly, made an Answer in the name of the States, expressing their great Afflictions for the Death of the late King; their Congratulation of Her Majesty's Succession to the Throne, their Thanks for the Assurances of Her Majesty's Friendship, and their own Resolution heartily to concur with Her Majesty in a vigorous Prosecution of the Common Cause.

Ludlow, March 13. This day Her Majesty was with all possible Solemnity Proclaimed in this Town; The Bayliffs, Aldermen, Common-Council, Town-Clerk, Steward, and the rest of the Officers of the Town, met at the Council Chamber, and being attended by the Ministers, Gentlemen, and Burgesses of that Corporation, they went to the High-Cross, and upon a Scaffold erected for that purpose Her Majesty was Proclaimed with all Solemnity, the Musick of the Town playing, the Drums beating, and Trumpets sounding; and the evening concluded with Bonfires, Ringing of Bells, &c.

Southampton, March 15. Yesterday Her Majesty was Proclaimed at this Place with the greatest Solemnity, the Trained-Bands being drawn out before the Audit-house, where the Mayor and Corporation were assembled for that purpose, gave three Salvo's with their Fire-Arms upon the Proclamation, and afterwards drank Her Majesty's Health; From thence they proceeded to the Key, where the great Guns, and those upon the Platform, were fired several times; from thence they went to Mr. Mayor's, and drank Her Majesty's Health again: The evening concluded with Illuminations, and all other possible Demonstrations of Joy, particularly a plentiful Entertainment was prepared at the Audit-house for the Corporation, and others, who came thither in great numbers to express their Loyalty on this Occasion.
